

Louisville Journal.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL CO.

Journal Office Building,
Green Street, between Third and Fourth.

Democratic Nominations.

SECRET ELECTION.
FOR GOVERNOR,
JOHN W. STEVENSON.
FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE,
W. H. BRUCE.
FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
PHILIP LEE.

FOR JUDGE OF THE COURT OF COMMON
HENRY J. WILSON.

FOR CHANCELLOR,
E. C. WELLMAN.

FOR CLERK OF THE CHANCERY COURT,
THOMAS W. THOMPSON.

FOR CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT,
JOHN S. CAIN.

FOR SHERIFF,
JOHN N. MARTIN.

FOR CITY AND COUNTY ATTORNEY,
T. H. MAXWELL.

FOR MARCHAL OF THE CITY COURT,
WILL HOWES.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1868.

THE DISPATCHES.

Gold.
Gas Money is in Washington.

Henry A. T. is to be the defense health.

The Chinese Embassy visited Mr. Vernon yesterday afternoon.

P. Culman was yesterday cast out of the number of Patrick Law, in Troy, New York.

The Jerome Party has again postponed yesterday on account of the weather.

Ason Hartman has made out his hundred thousand dollars of the Chinese.

The bill granting relief to certain naval stations has been passed by the Senate.

The Senate yesterday passed the bill returning Robert E. Lee to the command of all the Southern armies.

The majority of men of Foreign artillery at home & New Orleans are causing some trouble amongst the Chinese.

The entire session of Wethersby's Methodist Academy, Monroe, consisting of twenty seven students and ladies, withdrew yesterday on account of a difficulty with the principal, Dr. Cooke.

Porter had a reception at the Cooper Institute, New York, Wednesday night, by the Irish citizens.

The tax bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

Act of Johnson, our Washington special agent, was well pleased that Tennessee declared for him.

If it be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

It is to be true, as our special from Washington says, that Mr. Colfax, our organ of the nation of 350,000,000, is to be the next President, Mr. Chase.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Some 300 Indians spoke in opposition to it.

A bill has been reported from the Committee on the State of the Senate for the admission of Colorado.

A. B. Murray, an engineer on the Western & Atlantic, was accidentally run over and killed by a train at Allegany City, Penn.

Mr. Elihu Root, while in her yard in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, was shot and fatally wounded by a boy who was practising pistol shooting.

Gen. W. C. Wren, the "veteran" of Williams, was yesterday released from custody, having answered all questions put to him.

Bauer and Brooks were yesterday before the special committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The bill was again under consideration by the House, and was to be voted on at the whole.

Louisville Journal.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL CO.,
Journal Office Building,
Green Street, between Third and Fourth.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 3 A.M.

THE CITY.

Petit Larrey.

George Malone was arrested and committed to jail for stealing a key-hold saw.

Dan Yorke.

His 1000 voices addressed an angry audience in the Civic Hall, New Albany yesterday afternoon, on the political cause of the day.

Quiescent.

It is said by those who are in the mystic of the inner temple that the Pascal House lottery may not be off before the fall.

Conventional Resuscitation.

The Democrats of the Second Congressional District of Indiana yesterday nominated Hon. M. C. Kerr by acclamation for reelection to Congress.

An old soldier.

Olszewski, the famous Confederate ordnance officer, passed through Louisville a day or two ago. He is in a hush at Baton Rouge.

A sad present.

Joseph Anderson, a bricklayer, living on Kentucky street, son of a seafarer yesterday, and broke his leg. It will have to be amputated.

A bad dog.

A little negro, son of Peter Dabach, colored washaw artist of the golden sands of California, was bitten by a dog yesterday and will lose his hand in consequence.

Bad.

A young woman, apparently about seventeen years old, was lying on Main street yesterday, between Third and Fourth, dead—The unusual spectacle attracted quite a crowd of persons.

Badger.

The weather has fairly blossomed during the last few days, and thousands of visitors, native and casual, have thronged the charming grounds of Cave Hill Cemetery.

Badger.

The New Albany Ledger says that Mr. Edward Glass and Miss Barbara Ann Gilding escaped yesterday morning from Sellersburg, and were on their matrimonial happy journey to Jeffersonville "Squire."

Badger.

The ponds in the southern quarter of the city are being rapidly filled, and before Christmas a million dollars' worth of hitherto unrealized real estate will be introduced to the notice of the buying public.

Badger.

The Olympic Base Ball Club have been bewailing the Louisville Club as the last club to be finally defeated by the Athletics, and the result is that a match game has been arranged between them to be played at Cedar Hill next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A close game is anticipated.

The Coming Banquet.

The National Sangerer, which is to be held at the Hotel Louisville, is a great draw of interest among our German citizens. Quite a large delegation from Louisville will attend. The Journal will have its reporters there, as a matter of course. We expect it to be one of the most animated gatherings ever had in this country.

Badger.

The Roberts Circle F. C. B. have made arrangements to give a grand picnic at the Woodland Garden on Wednesday next. Paul Bannon, Esq., will be general director, with a committee of arrangements consisting of John Shelly, John Moore, and Will Horan, and a corps of efficient managers. No pains will be spared to make the affair an exceedingly pleasant.

The Course of True Love.

Anna Richards, "a young gal from the country," who came to Louisville looking for John Lish, "her bear"—they are both from Bourbon county—was arrested yesterday, making free with a face in the air of one of the most notorious of the underworld. The Aegis will be on her trial.

Badger.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's School.

The commencement exercises of Mrs. Tevis' school at Shadyside closed on Wednesday, and the young ladies have started for their homes. Most of those residing in our city are already at home, and about thirty-five were stopping at the Louisville, yesterday, awaiting the starting of the trains to journey home-ward. Fifteen of these were destined for St. Louis, and the Arkansans.

Barry's.

An impudent Memphis sport, who came to Louisville six weeks ago, because there was no money worth playing for in the Bluff City, left in a fit of disgrace, because, as he said, Louisville is too poor to afford him a decent reception. There hasn't been a murder in six weeks, and only a nigger killed in a sort of free fight. He was wise to go back to Memphis.

Barry's.

Last October Mr. E. S. Madsen had his leg broken in a sewer on the corner of Fourth and Main. The leg, which was then 16 inches long and ungrieved by the contractor, Chas. Ober, Mrs. Madsen brought suit in the Common Pleas Court against the city of Louisville and Chas. Ober for $10,000 damages. The case was tried and settled yesterday, the jury bringing in a verdict for $500 against Chas. Ober, attorney, and dismissing the suit against the city.

Barry's.

The commencement exercises of Mrs. Tevis' school at Shadyside closed on Wednesday, and the young ladies have started for their homes. Most of those residing in our city are already at home, and about thirty-five were stopping at the Louisville, yesterday, awaiting the starting of the trains to journey home-ward. Fifteen of these were destined for St. Louis, and the Arkansans.

Barry's.

John Rodman, and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, came to Louisville yesterday, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

The Perils of the Rail.

A Terrible Scene on the Fourth Street Railroad. Digital Shock to a Young Husband.

From the Board of Trade

THE CITY.

Petit Larrey.

George Malone was arrested and committed to jail for stealing a key-hold saw.

Dan Yorke.

His 1000 voices addressed an angry audience in the Civic Hall, New Albany yesterday afternoon, on the political cause of the day.

Quiescent.

It is said by those who are in the mystic of the inner temple that the Pascal House lottery may not be off before the fall.

Conventional Resuscitation.

The Democrats of the Second Congressional District of Indiana yesterday nominated Hon. M. C. Kerr by acclamation for reelection to Congress.

An old soldier.

Olszewski, the famous Confederate ordnance officer, passed through Louisville a day or two ago. He is in a hush at Baton Rouge.

A sad present.

Joseph Anderson, a bricklayer, living on Kentucky street, son of a seafarer yesterday, and broke his leg. It will have to be amputated.

A bad dog.

A little negro, son of Peter Dabach, colored washaw artist of the golden sands of California, was bitten by a dog yesterday and will lose his hand in consequence.

Bad.

A young woman, apparently about seventeen years old, was lying on Main street yesterday, between Third and Fourth, dead—The unusual spectacle attracted quite a crowd of persons.

Badger.

The weather has fairly blossomed during the last few days, and thousands of visitors, native and casual, have thronged the charming grounds of Cave Hill Cemetery.

Badger.

The New Albany Ledger says that Mr. Edward Glass and Miss Barbara Ann Gilding escaped yesterday morning from Sellersburg, and were on their matrimonial happy journey to Jeffersonville "Squire."

Badger.

The ponds in the southern quarter of the city are being rapidly filled, and before Christmas a million dollars' worth of hitherto unrealized real estate will be introduced to the notice of the buying public.

Badger.

The Olympic Base Ball Club have been bewailing the Louisville Club as the last club to be finally defeated by the Athletics, and the result is that a match game has been arranged between them to be played at Cedar Hill next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A close game is anticipated.

The Coming Banquet.

The Roberts Circle F. C. B. have made arrangements to give a grand picnic at the Woodland Garden on Wednesday next. Paul Bannon, Esq., will be general director, with a committee of arrangements consisting of John Shelly, John Moore, and Will Horan, and a corps of efficient managers. No pains will be spared to make the affair an exceedingly pleasant.

The Course of True Love.

Anna Richards, "a young gal from the country," who came to Louisville looking for John Lish, "her bear"—they are both from Bourbon county—was arrested yesterday, making free with a face in the air of one of the most notorious of the underworld. The Aegis will be on her trial.

Badger.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

The commencement exercises of Mrs. Tevis' school at Shadyside closed on Wednesday, and the young ladies have started for their homes. Most of those residing in our city are already at home, and about thirty-five were stopping at the Louisville, yesterday, awaiting the starting of the trains to journey home-ward. Fifteen of these were destined for St. Louis, and the Arkansans.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

John Rodman and John L. Scott, Esq., of Frankfort, are on a visit among us, and are at the Willard.

Barry's.

Our Shortest Suit.

From the Board of Trade

THE CITY.

Petit Larrey.

George Malone was arrested and committed to jail for stealing a key-hold saw.

Dan Yorke.

His 1000 voices addressed an angry audience in the Civic Hall, New Albany yesterday afternoon, on the political cause of the day.

Quiescent.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement exercises of the Louisville Female Seminary, Mrs. W. H. Nold, Principal, come off to a successful conclusion.

The commencement